Scenes in the Various Districts Photographed by "Evening World" Reporters.

- Bright Phœbus shone to-day upon an off-year The polls opened at 6 o'clock, and before Old Sol had got far into the heavens his eye saw a great people exercising the modern right of
- The election was very quiet in most of the lection precincts. The booths of the several solitical organizations, not always placed so far as 100 feet from the polling place, as prescribed by law, were guide-posts to the wayfarer. A solitary "bagman," looking desolate and alone, and two more or less somnolent policemen, marked the very entrance to the scene of selfgoverning suffrage.
- In the downtown districts the working force at the polis consisted of from ten to twenty Tammany men, half as many County Democrats and one or two Republicans. Uptown the dis-tribution of ticket peddiers and pullers in was
- even more.

 In many districts at the lower end of the island there was not even a solitary Republican at the polis, a sign instead attracting the attention of the suffragist to a long green box, divided into small compartments, in which the ballots of the G. O. P. were to be found. HEAVY FORENOON VOTE. The early vote was surprisingly large in most downtown districts at 0 o clock, and it was generally conceded that Tammany Hall was getting out her men in the best form.

 After an extensive tour of election districts in all parts of the city made by Evenine World reporters, it appeared at noon that over 150,-000 voters had cast their ballots.
- PATTY WALSH LOYAL.

 Ex-Warden Tom Walsh voted in his Park street polling-place carry, and then repaired to Mot street, where he is a power. Strange to say, despite his protestations he was dealing out straight combination tickets bearing the three candidates of the hated Republican party as well as those of the County Democracy.

 MURPHY AND AREAIN PROSPERING.
- It was generally conceded that Col. Mike Murphy was getting a large vote in the Fifth, and John F. Ahearn was making it a hard race for Tom Grady in the Sixth Senate District.
- DAN O'BOURKE'S OPEN. DAN O'BOURKE'S OPEN.

 The only place on the lower east side where there was any excitement was in the Mulberry street bailwick of Dan O'Rourke. Here the One Hundred Foot law was a dead letter. The workers—about forty of them, most of whom were Tammany men—clustered about the doorway of the basement polling place, blocking the way. Presently a voter would begin to wedge his way through the crowd. But invariably his career would be stopped and "the boys" would hustle him away for more persuasion.

 "PRINCIADING" VOTERS.
- "PRINCIPLO "VOTERS.

 One man, an Italian, was yanked out of the very polling booth just as he was offering his ballot and rushed around into Worth street to listen to argument.

 But in the uptown districts the work was more energetic. There was much vest-pocket voting, but the workers were energetic, and everywhere Tammany Hall seemed to have the advantage in enthusiasm. The Counties seemed only half-hearted, and the Republicans were perfunctory, white halfest here and rushe. "PERSUADING " VOTERS.
- WHITE BADGES HERE AND THERE.
- As to "citizens," in the downtown precincts there was not a white badge to be seen anywhere, and only an eccasional booth and a stray white badge indicated the "citizen" movement in the uptown precincts.
- WARRANTS FOR "FLOATERS." Policeman Curry, of the Leonard street sta-tion, has twelve and the Eldringe street police twenty warrants, issued yesterday, for persons said to have illegally registered in those pre-
- said to have lilegally registered in those precincts.

 Business was quite generally suspended all over the city. The Custom House, Sub-Treasury, Post-Office, banks and exchanges observed the holiday, and all the courts except those directed to be open for special purposes connected with the election are closed. Justice Andrews, of the Supreme Court, sat all day in Chambers,
 to be ready for immediate action in mandamus, habeas corpus and injunction proceedings which may arise out of the performance or non-performance of the election officers.
- CITIZEN VOLUNTEERS. Oliver Summer Teal's $50 volunteer Republicans looked like a good many gathered together last hight at the Barthodl, but, dispersed among the 1,019 election districts of the city, they are hardly noticeable to-day.
- WATCH "THE WORLD" BULLETINE. WATCH "THE WORLD" BULLETINS.

 To-night people anxious to learn the result early will find the quickest and most reliable returns, of course, on The Evening World bullstin board in Fark Row.

 The returns will be read to the public in the court-room on the third floor at Poice Headquarters. They will be tabulated by districts at the police stations and sent by special messengers to Headquarters.

 MR. BRODERY WAS MERRY.

 "What will the harvest be-se-se; oh, what
- "What will the harvest be-e-c-or oh, what will the harvest be?"
- What will the harvest be-e-c-o; oh, what will the harvest be?

 It was the rich baritone voice of John E. Brodsky, the able and active lieutenant of John J. O'brion, which carolled this inquiry in the Essex Market Police Court this morning.

 'What occasions this melodions interrogation of the Fates, Johnny?' asked The Evening Wonto reporter.

 'Well, you see, it was suggested by the present condition of affairs. I feel merry. The hustling is all done. The seedtime is over. Now has come the harvest and our reapers are at work gathering in the votes, which promise to be abundant.

o'DRIEN THERE TOO.

- o'drien there too.

 'The Chief, here," indicating the great O'Brien himself, who was by his side, "and I are the gleaners, picking up the stray voters here and there, taking care that every vote is garnered."

 The restive lieutenant here turned to attend to the business of the hour, which was to secure the recase of three young men who had been arre-ted for illegal voting.

 Police Justice Duffy was in an easy humor; the evidence was very slim, showing the poll-clerks to be more to blame than the voters, in that they had recorded names improperly, and the young men were released an I hurried off to work for 'O Brien and victory."
- "One of those fellows was a Tammany Hall man, another a County Democrat and the third a 'Regular Republican," said Brodsky, turning to the reporter. "You may say that none of the Citizons Darry has been agreeted."

 The reporter turned his attention to the Chief and asked him for his opinion as to the result in the district.

"I don't know much about such things since I got out of politics," returned Mr. O'Brien, with a merry twinkle in his eye.

- SURE SMITH AND GORTZ WILL WIN.

 Growing scrious, however, he said: 'Smith and Goetz will be elected by 1,000 majority. Mind now, not plurality but majority over all. The 'regulars' will wonder what they are organized for."
- SOLID FOR DIESL. "How are you people voting for Benator?"
 For Diehl; solidly for Diehl. There are a ew fellows to whom we will administer a lesson, owever."
- however."

 No RUM AT SILVER DOLLAR'S.

 One of the wonders of to-day's fight in the Eighth District was so wonderful that it nearly stupefied the voters in the Twelfth Election District when they witnessed it.

 It was the fact that Assemblyman "Silver Dollar" Smith's saloon in Essex street was actually closed.

 The shades were all raised and the whole interior was open to the view of the officers in the Essex Market Police Court across the way.

 Nobody was inside and the safe with the queer combination could not bother the City Reform Club's Pinkerton detectives, who were on the lookout for frand and bribery.

 MR. SMITH WAS HUSTLING.
- MR. SMITH WAS HUSTLING. The big Assemblyman was sourrying over the district and Barkeeper Butier was outside the saloon, dealing out tickets instead of beer.

 George J. Kram's Volks Garten, in the Bowery, was closed as tightly as Smith's "Silver Dollar" saloon. Both men were attending strictly to their profession as politicians and letting the beer business alone for the day.

 Barney Bourke's place in Forsyth street, and Jim McManus, ou the corner of Grand and Chrystic streets, also appeared to be closed, but there were suspicious goings and comings at the side doors.
- side doors.

 Quiet reigned everywhere in the district, and a comparatively light vote was being polled, with the jubilant O'Brienites evidently in the lead.
- lead.

 QUIET ON THE WEST SIDE.

 On the west side the voting was going on steadtly but quietly this morning.

 Police Captains Reilly, Grant and Brogan each stated to an Evening Would reported the ball was in play, good rushing by the Princeton liue, fine runs by Ames and Black that there was no trouble of any kind about the polis, and they do not anticipate any.
- polls, and they do not anticipate any. ONE OF THE FEW ARRESTS. Dennis Kinsale was brought to the Jefferson Market Police Court by Officer Finnerty on complaint of a man who said Dennis had faisely
- registered.

 The complainant failed to appear in court.
 and Dennis was discharged.

 His arrest was only a bluff to try and make him lose his vote.

 It was the only case connected with politics in the court this morning.

 The Yale-Crescent Game.

 ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.]

 WASHINGTON PARK, BROOKLYN, NOV. 5.—The Yale and Crescent football teams played a match game here this afternoon before about ICEMAN TURNER'S CANVARS.
- At Iceman Turner's headquarters, No. 4 West Thirteenth street and 509 Hudson street, his friends were working hard for his success. They said his chances of election were good. He could not be found. He was all over his district hustling for votes and support with his characteristic impetuosity. BEADY AT POLICE HEADQUARTERS.
- There was the usual Election Day show of blue cloth and brass buttons at Police Headquarters to-day and of patrol wagons for "riot duty" in the street; but it might all as well have been omitted. SEVENTY POLLING-PLACE VACANCIES, The Police Commissioners filled vacancies made by the desertion of sixty roll clerks and seventeen inspectors, and removed Poll Clerk M. Broc in the Twenty-seventh Election District of the Ninth Assembly District for being drunk on duty.
- JOHN L. LAVENPORT'S WORK.

 A dozen warrants were issued by United States Supervisor Davenport against men alleged to have registered illegally in the Ninth Congressional District and the prisoners taken before United States Commissioner Shields.

 Vincent Albrecht was accused of having registered as a resident of $13 East Houston street, but proved a residence at 303 East Houston street, but proved a residence at 303 East Houston street, and was discharged.

 Henry Ramburger was charged with not residing at 50 First avenue, where he registered from. He proved that his claim was correct and was released.

Princeton Meets Columbia and Crescents Surprise Yales.

MonRIS DOCK, Nov. 5. -For the first time this ear the football eleven of Princeton and Columbia met to-day in conflict over the leatherovered, wind-filled ball.

Columbia's eleven had not made much of

- showing this year, but Princeton has seldom, if ever before, put a stronger team into the field.

 The interest in the game was, however, conderable, as the attendance, which numbered omewhat more than 5,000 people, proved. In the crowd upon the grand stand were many adies, eagerly appreciative of the athletes.
- though knowing little of the game they played, Columbia backers were out in force and Princeton's colors were well represented. Play began shortly after 3 o'clock. The sides were lined up as follows: ollows:

 The same started with the ball in Crescents position.
 The Yale rush line was but little superior to the Crescent, and back of the line the teams were very evenly matched.
 The passing by Beecher, the rushing of Terry and Edwards and the bunting of Bull were remarkably fine, considering the small amount of practice they have had.
 For Yale Gill's play was very steady and sure, while McClung both rushed and kicked well.
 The Yale rushers tried repeatedly to force their way through the Crescents, but though they managed to keep the ball in the Crescents territory during the entire first half, they were unable to get it over the goal line.
 Bull and Terry were right there every time. Score at end of first half; Yale, 0; Crescent, 0, McBride had as fine chance to score a goal from the field, but his kick went wide of the goal.
 Bull was very badly kicked just over the eye, but pluckily continued playing.
 In the second half, Yale rose mightily and, despite brave Crescent work, made 18 points.
 Crescent scored nothing and the Yale men were victors.

AROUND THE HOTELS.

Joy Reigns at the Hoffman and Gloom at the Fifth Avenue. The scene in and about the large hotels, where the headquarters of the different State commit- tees are located, is an enlivening one. The corridors of the Hoffman are simply jammed with a crowd of boisterous, joyful Democrats, who are congratulating themselves and everybody else upon the victory in the State and in the city.

 Several policemen have been detailed to the
- crats should become demonstrative.

 In the Fifth Avenue Hotel everything is gloomy, and from the expression on the faces of the Republicans it would seem that they had given up all hope. Gen. Knapp, the Chairman of the Republican hotel to preserve order in case the joyful Demo-

State Committee, is in parlor G, reading private despatches from all parts of the State. Outside the hotel crowds watch the bulletin on top of the building on the corner of Twenty-third street and Fifth avenue. The returns were evidently very satisfactory, for every time Democratic gains were reported the crowd shouted its approval.

Democratic State and County Tickets Worked by the Ex-Chief.

- But One Republican Wama on His Sets of Ballots.
- Everything Sacrificed for Silver-Dolla
- Smith and Alderman Goets. The "Citizens" ticket voted in the Eightl

- Johnny O'Brien was not allowed to assist making the Saratoga ticket and naturally did not feel in duty bound to support it. For that reason and the further reason that he desire reason and the further reason that he desires the Republican party of this State to recognize the fact that he is an element of strength not to be despised, as were his domands for admission to the Saratoga Convention, Mr. O'Brien gave his carnest and hearty support to the entire Demogratic State ticket.

 And this despite the fact that the John J. O'Brien Association announced its intention to heap coals of fire on the heads of the personners of the chief by supporting all of the Republican nominees.

 The tickets here given were bunched in every O'Brien booth in the district, and the particular set reproduced here was furnished Turkevsino World reporter by 'Silver Dollar Swith's bartender. But one Republican candidate, it will be seen, was receiving the O'Brien vote, Albert Haight, for Associate Justice of the Court of Appeals of the Judiciary ticket—the alleged Standard Oil candidate.

This judiciary ticket furnishes an idea of the O'Brien delight in variety.

Besides the Republican candidate, Bischoff, and Gildersleeve, two Tammany men are on it, and Newberger, for City Court Judge, a County Democrat.

- and Newberger, for City Court Judge, a County Democrat.

 The O'Brienites voted for but one candidate for City Court Judge.

 The Character of the "Judiciary" ticket and the fact that the O'Brienites were casting the straight Tammany Hall city ticket for Register and President of the Board of Alderman, was evidence that the chief had another score to settle, and that was the action of the Regulational to the county Committee in Ignominiously bouncing his men outside the breastworks and declaring his organization not to be the representative Republican organization of the Eighth District.

 The tickets of Fred Diehl for Senator were being bunched and voted religiously, which was and the county disposer of political destinies in this district.

 The other candidates of The O'Brien were the favorite "citizen" nominees, Smith for Assemblyman, and Goets for Alderman.
